Presidents Message Volume 66, Issue 7

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

June has been very busy! The day after our general meeting we went to the state convention. While there, I gave a talk on genealogy, we sponsored a hospitality suite for Sr. Kathryn's campaign for state trustee and Br. Dante competed in the home-made wind competition. Unfortunately, Sr. Kathryn lost, but Br. Dante's wine came in first place! Our bowling team came in second place; Br. Tony Sclafani and Sr. Michelle Abbondandolo won for highest averages! After the fun, it was back to reality at the lodge when we found that the central heat and air conditioning had broken down and had to be repaired.

Our upcoming meeting will be an exciting one. We will be giving out scholarships and medals to graduating high school students and we will be welcoming the Mayor of Sturno, Franco DiCecilia, his family and Deputy Dr. Rocco Moccia. We have invited our local representatives and Thomas DeNapoli, our State Comptroller, will be one of our honored guests. As a matter of fact, he is the Mayor of Sturno's cousin, and at our Grand Lodge Convention in a speech he made to all the delegates he said, "I am looking forward to going to Loggia Glen Cove on July 2nd to welcome the Mayor of Sturno, my cousin."

On August 6 we will have the Honorable Judge Albert Parente, who will give a talk about his book, "Are you a Fool Benucio?" (It would be foolish to miss this meeting!) Plan to come. See you at the meeting!

Fraternally yours,
John Laruccia,

Presidents Message — Italian Translation

Cari Fratelli,

Giugno e stato molto impegnato. Il giorno dopo del nostro l'ultimo 'meeting' siamo andati al congresso statale, li io ho presentato una conferenza geneologico, abbiamo fatto una 'hospitality suite' per l'elezione di Sr. Kathryn per ufficio statale, del Ordine, e Fr. Dante ha meso suo vino in concorso. Sfortunatamente Sr. Kathryn ha perso; pero Fr. Dante ha vinto il primo premio. La nostra squadra di 'bowling' ha presso second nello stato, ed Fr. Antonino Sclafani e Sr. Michele Abbondandolo hanno presso premi per il medio piu alto.

Al ritorno abbiamo trovato la sistema dell'aria condizionata era rotto ed e stato conservato.

Nel meeting di due Luglio presenteremo le Borse di Studi ai nostri laureati locali, ed onoriamo il Sindaco di Sturno, Franco DiCecilia, sua famiglia, e suo deputato Rocco Moccia. Verrano ufficiali locali e Thomas DiNapoli il Capo Fiscale dello Stato di New York, in fatto, lui e uno cugino al Sindaco di Sturno ed al Congresso statale del Ordine nostro avera detto che "sono in anticipo di andare a Loggia Glen Cove il due Luglio per vedere il Sindaco di Sturno, il mio cugino."

In Agosto, vera il Giudice Alberto Parente che parlara del suo libro, "Are you a Fool Benucio?" Vieni ad ascoltare.

A la prossima.

Tuo fratello, Giovanni Laruccia
